There are many benefits in becoming a PTA Associate: attending PTA Training Days and Conventions, receiving the PTA Newsletter, joining the Forum – the PTA's Internet discussion group and being listed in the PTA Yearbook. However PTA Rules state that you are not allowed to advertise that you are a PTA Associate, nor use the PTA logo nor vote at the Annual General Meeting. To have these benefits, you must pass the PTA Membership Test to become a Member. If you would prefer to become a PTA Member, please request a Membership Application Form or download one from the PTA website: www.pianotuner.org.uk

If you are not already a PTA Patron or Student, your name, address and telephone details will be published in the PTA Newsletter as having applied to become a PTA Associate.

I consent to my application being published in PTA News

I apply to become a PTA Associate and if elected, I agree to pay upon demand the annual subscription and to abide by the PTA Rules as listed in the current PTA Yearbook (available on request) and on the PTA Website: www.pianotuner.org.uk
